Newsletter 31

11th June 2021

Message from the Headteacher

We hope you all had a wonderful half term and enjoyed the sunshine. It's lovely to see all the pupils return to school this week, a very busy week in school as you will see below.

Last night we saw Adam, who was one of our Springboard Interns, on Granada Reports. Please click below to watch Adam's incredible journey of becoming a paid employee. We are all so proud of his achievements.

We await the outcome of our National Nomination for the Springboard project on Friday 25th June!

News and Information

Thank You

A big thankyou to Mr Gray, James Gray's Grandad, who kindly donated a greenhouse (and some Ying Yang beans) for our 3AO garden area. With the help of Maisy and Bartosz we put it up yesterday and it's taken pride of place in the garden. We look forward to populating it with plants and flowers.
